The State of Indiana, by Attorney General Steve Carter and Deputy Attorney General Eric Jackson, petitions the Court pursuant to the Indiana Business Opportunity Transactions Act, Ind. Code § 24-5-8-1 et seq., and the Indiana Deceptive Consumer Sales Act, Ind. Code § 24-5-0.5-1 et seq., for injunctive relief, restitution, civil penalties, investigative costs, and other relief.

FACTS

1. The Defendant, Holiday Enterprises Inc., is a foreign corporation with its principal place of business located at 2144 Buford Highway, Suite 211-A, Buford, GA.

2. The Defendant, Holiday Ink, Inc., is a foreign corporation with its principal place of business located at 2589 Ivy Plantation Drive, Buford, GA.

3. On or about November 1, 2004 Holiday Ink, Inc., purchased Holiday Enterprises Inc.

4. Since at least August 2004, the Defendants have engaged in the business of selling a business opportunity, whereby investors would sell replacement ink and toner cartridges, to the general public and have engaged in the solicitation of said business opportunity within the State of Indiana.

5. The Defendant, Holiday Enterprises Inc., solicited and entered into contracts for the sale of said business opportunity with Indiana investors, including, but not limited to Stephen Cook ("Cook") of Osceola, Indiana, who paid Fifteen Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Five Dollars ($15,950.00) to the Defendant on or about August 10, 2004. A copy of the contract is attached as Exhibit 'A'.

6. Holiday Enterprises, Inc.'s contract with Cook failed to include to the following information:

- a. the name and business address of Defendant's agent in Indiana authorized to receive service of process;
- b. the terms and conditions of payment;
- c. a detailed description of any services that the Defendant undertakes to perform for the investor;
- d. a detailed description of any training that the Defendant undertakes to provide to the investor;
- e. the approximate delivery date of any goods the seller is to deliver to the investor; and
- f. a statement of the investor's thirty (30) day right to cancel the contract.

7. The Defendant, Holiday Ink, Inc., solicited and entered into contracts for the sale of said business opportunity with Indiana investors, including, but not limited to Scott and Lorry Garber ("the Garbers") of Claypool, Indiana, who paid Twenty Four Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty Dollars ($24,950.00) on or about March 21, 2005. A copy of the contract is attached as Exhibit 'B'.

8. Holiday Ink, Inc.'s contract with the Garbers failed to include to the following information:

- a. the name and business address of Defendant's agent in Indiana authorized to receive service of process;
- b. the terms and conditions of payment;
- c. a detailed description of any services that the Defendant undertakes to perform for the investor;
- d. a detailed description of any training that the Defendant undertakes to provide to the investor;
- e. the approximate delivery date of any goods the seller is to deliver to the investor; and
- f. a statement of the investor's thirty (30) day right to cancel the contract.

9. After the initial purchase, the Garbers purchased additional ink cartridges from the Holiday Ink, Inc., for a price of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00).

10. The Defendants represented to Cook and the Garbers that a market existed for selling the replacement ink cartridges and that they could receive a profit by purchasing the business opportunity.

11. The Defendants did not provide Cook and the Garbers with a copy of a disclosure document containing the information required by Ind. Code § 24-5-8-2.

12. The Defendants did not obtain a surety bond in favor of the State of Indiana for the use and benefit of investors prior to their transactions with Cook and the Garbers.

13. The Defendants did not file a disclosure statement or bond with the Consumer Protection Division of the Indiana Office of Attorney General or pay the initial filing of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) prior to their transactions with Cook and the Garbers.

14. On or about September 26, 2005, a copy of the complaint form that the Garbers filed with the Indiana Office of Attorney General, wherein they requested a refund from the Defendant, was mailed to the Holiday Ink Inc.

15 The Defendants' offer of selling display racks and ink cartridges to investors who would then sell the cartridges to others is a "business opportunity" as defined by Ind. Code 24-5-8-1.

COUNT I - VIOLATIONS OF THE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY TRANSACTIONS ACT

16. The Defendants' failure to provide Indiana investors, including but not limited to Cook and the Garbers, with the disclosures required by Indiana law at least seventy-two (72) hours before the earlier of the investors' execution of a business opportunity contract with the Defendants or receipt of any consideration by the Defendants, as referred to in paragraph 11 above, is a violation of Ind. Code § 24-5-8-2.

17. The Defendants' failure to obtain a surety bond in favor of the State of Indiana prior to offering to sell their business opportunity to Indiana investors, as referred to in paragraph 12 above, is a violation of Ind. Code § 24-5-8-3.

18. The Defendants' failure to file a copy of the disclosure statement and surety bond and pay the filing fee required by Indiana law with the Consumer Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General prior to placing any advertisement or making any representation to any Indiana investor about said business opportunity, as referred to in paragraph 13 above, is a violation of Ind. Code § 24-5-8-4.

19. The Defendants' failure to include the information detailed in paragraphs 6 & 8 above is a violation of Ind. Code § 24-5-8-6(b).

20. Due to the foregoing violations of Ind. Code 24-5-8-2, Indiana investors, including but not limited to Cook and the Garbers, have a statutory right to cancel their business opportunity contracts with the Defendants in accordance with Ind. Code § 24-5-8-15.

21. Due to foregoing violations of Ind. Code §24-5-8-6(b) Indiana investors, including but not limited to the Garbers, have a statutory right to void their business opportunity contracts with the Defendant in accordance with Ind. Code § 24-5-8-16.

22. In accordance with Ind. Code § 24-5-8-20 the Defendants' violations of Indiana's Business Opportunity Transactions Act, Ind. Code 24-5-8-1 et seq. are violations of Indiana's Deceptive Consumer Sales Act, Ind. Code § 24-5-0.5-1 et seq.

COUNT II – KNOWING VIOLATIONS OF THE BUSINESS

OPPORTUNITIES TRANSACTIONS ACT

23. The Defendants' violations of Indiana's Business Opportunity Transactions Act, Ind. Code § 24-5-8-1 et seq. were knowing violations.

IRREPARABLE HARM

24. The deceptive acts set forth above will continue and will cause irreparable injury unless the Defendants are enjoined from engaging in further conduct which violates Ind. Code § 24-5-8-1 et seq., and § 24-5-0.5-1 et seq.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, State of Indiana, requests the Court to enter a judgment against the Defendants and order the following relief:
